74 executive apartments set within a new residential quarter.

In the North harbour of Amsterdam we have completed a development of apartments commissioned by ING Real Estate. Our scheme, approximately 10,700 m² gross external area features 74 flats through 8 floors. It occupies the northern end of the site and forms a courtyard with a neighbouring building.

The building façade is rendered in Altenberger Travertin stone, which contains large fossils and stones, giving a dynamic appearance when viewed at a close range. The façade fenestration is uniform in size.

The objective was to produce a calm façade on to which rhythms are produced from the alternation of square windows and rectangular French doors.
