An exhibition exploring the relationship between Art & Film.

Spellbound: Art and Film was an exhibition organised by the Hayward Gallery in collaboration with the British Film Institute. Ten artists and filmmakers working in Britain created new work to explore the relationship between art and film. The exhibition was curated by Ian Christie and Philip Dodd, then Director of the British Film Institute.

Featured artists included Douglas Gordon; Fiona Banner; Eduardo Paolozzi; Damien Hirst; Tim Head; Derek Boshier; Bruce McLean; Steve McQueen; Paula Rego; Ridley Scott; Terry Gilliam; Boyd Webb; Peter Greenaway and Sam Taylor-Wood.
